SONG OF VICTORY.

No. 1.—CHORUS.

The Lord great wonders for us hath wrought! Sing and be joyful! Mighty is our God, and of mighty power, there is none that searcheth or understandeth His judgments.

No. 2.—TREBLE SOLO WITH CHORUS.

Praise, O Jerusalem, praise the Lord, praise O Zion, praise thy God! He maketh strong the bars of thy gateways, He gives peace within thy borders, the swords of the foemen He hath broken, their cities He hath overthrown.

No. 3.—CHORUS.

The heathen are fallen in the pit that they made for others, their own foot is taken in the net which they had hidden. They are all brought to nought, they are fallen, we are risen and stand upright. Lord, my rock, my tower, my Redeemer, my shield, my defence, my strength, in whom I put my trust; yea, although a host cometh against me, yet shall not my heart be affrighted; yea, though war riseth up against me, yet my trust shall be put in Him.

O come and see the works of the Lord, what destruction He bringeth on the earth, He restraineth wars in all the world, He breaketh the bow, He knappeth the spear and burneth the chariots with fire.

No. 4.—TREBLE SOLO.

See, it is written in the book of the righteous, The beauty of Israel hath been slain in her high places: how are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war are broken. The Lord is like to a foe, He hath increased mourning and grief in the daughter of Judah. I weep and lament, mine eyes are like to rivers of water, my heart within my body is greatly troubled, for I am sore afflicted.

No. 5.—TREBLE SOLO AND CHORUS.

He in tears that soweth, reapeth a joyful harvest; He who now goeth weeping, good seed and precious bearing, returneth with gladness, rich sheaves and plenteous bringing.

No. 6.—CHORUS.

Mighty is our God, and of mighty power, there is none that searcheth His judgments.

No. 7.—TREBLE SOLO AND CHORUS.

Praise ye the Lord in His holiness, praise ye Him in the Firmament of His power.

No. 8.—CHORUS AND TREBLE SOLO

Praise the Lord for His great wonders, praise the Lord, O praise His mighty excellence, praise ye Him with the trumpet, with lute and harp, and psalt'ry, with timbrels and dances, with tabors and cymbals, with sounding organ. Hallalujah.

NOVELLO, EWER & CO.'S

MUSIC PRIMERS

EDITED BY

DR. STAINER.

In issuing this series of Music Primers the Editor sees with pleasure the realisation of a desire he has long felt, to place in the hands of teachers and students of music a set of educational works of a high standard at a price so low as to render them attainable by all.

The growing interest in music generally, and rapid spread of its study, so very evident in this country, render it of the utmost importance that the student's first steps in every branch should be directed with skill and based on sound principles. The Editor has kept this object steadily in view, and he believes that each one of these Primers will prove to be as carefully constructed in detail as it is comprehensive in design.

Such a result would have been impossible but for the hearty support and sympathy of those authors, men of known ability in their special branches of art, who have embodied the results of their long and valuable experience in their respective contributions.

While gratefully acknowledging the kindness of these gentlemen, the Editor cannot but express a hope that the Primers may prove as useful to the public, and as beneficial to art, as both authors and publishers have endeavoured to make them.

ORCHESTRAL PARTS.

Since the reduction in the price of music in 1849, by Mr. J. A. NOVELLO, Choral Societies have so rapidly grown up and developed that works requiring full orchestral accompaniments are now, rather as a rule than an exception, included in their public performances. Hitherto, however, the price of band parts has been so high that, instead of purchasing, it has been the custom to hire them whenever a composition demanding such aid has been given. In order to obviate the necessity of this, Messrs. NOVELLO, EWER & Co. have decided that in future all Orchestral Parts shall be marked at the uniform rate of

SIXPENCE PER SHEET,

thus enabling Institutions to form a permanent Library for the Orchestra, as well as for the Choir, at a small additional outlay.

LETTERS FROM BAYREUTH

DESCRIPTIVE AND CRITICAL OF

WAGNER'S

DER RING DES NIBELUNGEN

WITH AN APPENDIX BY

JOSEPH BENNETT

Special Correspondent of the Daily Telegraph.

"Mr. Bennett is well-known to English musicians as one of our blest critics. A musician himself, he adds to remarkable insight and ritical judgment—intensified by long experience—the gift of a fine, ucid, and nervous English style. . . . As a permanent record of hese famous performances, Mr. Bennett's little book cannot be too ighly recommended, and those amateurs who wish to have a general dea of Wagner's theories will find them described in language less nthusiastic certainly than in the letters of the composer's avowed lisciples, but without prejudice, and above all without a trace of ntention to ridicule. . . . In the appendix are interesting sketches of Nuremberg and Salzburg, and an account of a visit to the graves of Mozart, Beethoven, and Schubert."—Manchester Examiner.

"We find so much which we can cordially indorse that we have reat pleasure in recommending the little volume as an interesting ecord of the important events which it describes."—Academy.

SIR JOHN HAWKINS.

THE

STORY OF MOZART'S REQUIEM.

Carefully compiled from the best and most authentic sources,

BY WM. POLE, F.R.S., MUS. DOC.

This immortal work, independently of its value as a musical composition, has great interest on account of its very remarkable history. The mysterious commission given for it, the supernatural impression made by this on Mozart, his composition of the work under such pathetic circumstances, partly on his deathbed, the difficulties as to its publication, the fierce controversy as to its authorship, which for fourteen years engaged the attention of some of the most learned men and profound musicians of Europe, the extraordinary disappearance and long concealment of the manuscripts, their ultimate discovery, the difficult and perplexing questions as to their genuineness, the strange revelations gradually made as to the secret history of the various transactions, and the doubts which, after all possible information has been obtained, still hang over the authorship of some parts of the work; all these things, spread over seventy or eighty years, form a story of unparalleled interest in the annals of music.

The object of the present essay is to tell this story, which is hitherto but little known in England; and it will form, it is hoped, an appropriate companion to the various editions of the "Requiem" published by Messrs. Novello and Co.

"Dr. Pole's little book is the result of much careful and painstaking investigation, the conclusions from which are given in the most logical and clear manner, and embody perhaps the most extraordinary story ever heard of in connection with a musical composition, and one which really has all the interest of a romance."—Edinburgh Review.
